my reports. In 1876 the Rev. Wm. Hoffman was with me for a few days and preached for me. He has called to his rest last year.—

Letter printed in Annals

In 1877 the Rev. W. A. Leonard of Brooklyn and the Rev. Chas. H. Strong of Stratford Conn. visited me. The Rev. Mr. Strong preached for me once. They met my people, and visited Matanzas and other parts of the Island.— Not long after their return a letter over two columns in length appeared in the Churchman from the pen of the Rev. W. A. Leonard bearing testimony to our Work and its importance. And urging its claims upon the Church at large. I have found a copy of the paper containing the letter and take pleasure in handing it to you. The testimony speaks for itself and the testifier is rector of the Church of the Redeemer Brooklyn. I was received in Canada heartily yes. Even there heartily mainly because of the testimony of Bishop Hellmuth and the letter which I carried from our Presiding Bishop. The Secular press and the Church press of the Dominion bear witness to this.— I simply cite these facts Bishop for your information and because I believe it to be for the
